

Greetings Pursuit Soccer Club!

To start off, WELCOME to Spring Break to all our Klein ISD students, and those that are on Spring break this week. To everyone else, 1 more week until a break!

At any rate, please be sure to check the schedule information for this week and next on training, as we worked to be sure to provide everyone opportunity to have training this week, all while getting some much needed rest, as we get ready to move into the stretch run for Cup play, and closing out league matches, before leading into the tryout segment of the season! A quick note on tryouts, NEW U-11 tryouts will be held May 1-3 @ Meyer Park and tryouts for U-12 through U-18 will be held June 1-6 @ Meyer Park. Information will be forthcoming, but mark your calendars now and continue to check online at www.pursuitsoccer.org for updates!

Speaking of www.pursuitsoccer.org many have asked "how do they get those pictures on there, and what do we need to do to get our pics on there?" EMAIL them to webmaster@pursuitsoccer.org and we can use them for multiple things on the site! We are always looking for pics of the girls in action! Also, your team has their OWN team page that they can post information about training, etc. online, so be sure to check out everything the website has to offer! The calendar has some important dates, like our Pursuit TENT Day @ Meyer, which is now April 18, the banquet on March 22, tryout dates, and our PURSUIT NIGHT @ the HOUSTON DYNAMO on May 30!

SENIORS, DONT FORGET, the scholarship deadline is approaching FAST!!!! Be sure to send your completed applications in THIS WEEK to beat the deadline. No applications will be accepted after the deadline! TEAMS, be sure to send your ticket orders in this week!!!

PSC entered a tough weekend of play leading into Spring break and produced some strong results on the weekend, info on games is below!

98 Midnight went 0-1 this weekend, dropping their game by a scoreline of 1-3, and currently sits with a 1-1-1 record after 3 matches in Round 2
98 Royal went 1-1 this weekend, dropping game 1 on Saturday, but winning game 2 on Sunday 2-0. They currently sit at 2-1 in the standings
98 Cobalt went 0-1-1 this weekend, dropping their Saturday match, but picking up the draw on Sunday. The team currently sits at 0-2-1 overall in Round 2
98 Navy went 1-1 this weekend, with a loss on Saturday followed by a 4-1 win on Sunday! The team is currently 1-2 overall in Round 2
97 Blue went 1-0 this weekend and currently sits at 2-1 on the season in Round 2 of league play!
97 White went 0-1 this weekend after a hard fought 0-1 match. The girls are making tremendous strides!
96 Blue went 0-2 this weekend, with 2 tough matches against the #2 and #4 teams in ALL of Eastern District! The girls are looking forward to Presidents Cup play and are excited about their progress forward!

Our 2 PDF teams played this weekend, and we were a little thin due to some conflicts with Spring Break, Jonas Bros, etc., but the girls battled strong this weekend and showed a lot of determination in their matches! This is an exciting group of girls and they represent PSC well in each match!

This week and next, dont forget about the modified schedule! Information is below, and online at www.pursuitsoccer.org PLEASE note the times on the Academy, Skills, GK, etc. and days.

Wednesday, March 11 and 18th

98's 5:00-6:30

PDF 6:30-8:00

95's 96s' 6:30-8

GK I 6:30-8:00 (March 18 only)

SKILLS-Extra session 6:30-8:00

HS 8:00-9:30

GK II 8:00-9:30 (March 18 only)

NO REC SKILLS MARCH 9-13

REC SKILLS (March 18th only), 5:00-6:15

Thursday March 12 and 19th

97's 5:00-6:30

GK I 6:30-8:00 (March 12 only)

SKILLS-Extra Session 6:30-8:00

HS 8:00-9:30

GK II 8:00-9:30 (March 12 only)

NO REC SKILLS MARCH 9-13

REC SKILLS (March 19th only) 6:30-7:45

GREAT Job this weekend, and we hope you have a GREAT break! As always, let me know if you need anything and GOOOOOOO PURSUIT!!!

scott